PREAMBLE

The Constitution of the United States of America

We, the People of the United States, in order to form a more perfect Union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and to our posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

A COLLECT FOR CLUB WOMEN

Keep us, oh God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we be never hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all, and, oh Lord God, let us forget not to be kind!

MARY STEWART

HOUSE OF GLADNESS

This is the house of Gladness,
Within its walls
Each member of the household,
Is courteous and kind;
To lighten burdens and to reflect sunshine
Is the mission of all."

HOUSE OF ORDER

"The Beauty of the House is Order,
The Blessing of the House is Contentment.
The Glory of the House is Hospitality,
The Crown of the House is Godliness."

GRACE SONG

(Tune: "Now the Day is Over")

As we come together
May Thy blessing rest
On our club, O Father
On each welcome guest,
Give us joy in service
Grant that we may see
As we help each other
We are serving Thee.

Amen.

PRAYER

"Help me, O Lord, to live so that the world may be a little better because Thou did'st make me."—Amen.

ORGANIZATION

Home Demonstration Clubs

The home demonstration clubs are organized in natural communities in each township, and hold monthly meetings in the homes of different members, at the school or at the Church, club, and community houses. They elect officers for one or two years in Sept. or Oct. and appoint leaders for the various projects as carried in the program of work. Officers should be changed often enough so that all members have an opportunity to serve. The Executive Board, made up of officers, cooperates with the home economics agent in devising ways and means of arousing interest in better home and community living for all families in the community.

Club Home Economics Project Leaders

A leader for each home economics project is selected for two years to assist in planning and carrying on the project program of work. Leadership, ability, and interest in the subject should be considered in selecting leaders. Leaders attend training schools and workshops conducted by the home economics agents and specialists. They are responsible for holding six or more club meetings a year and for community work needed in their respective project. They teach better homemaking practices to women who are not club members and to those who live in unorganized communities.

County Council

The County Council is composed of officers of the local clubs, county project leaders and county committee chairmen. It is organized according to the constitution and by-laws, and meets quarterly, usually in January, March, June and October. The Annual Business Meeting and Achievement Day is held in October or November.

Districts

The 52 organized counties in the State are divided into 3 districts, Western, Northeastern and Southeastern. District Meetings are held annually at which time reports of the year's work are given.

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee is composed of the State Council officers and the three district presidents. It acts as an advisory committee in determining plans, policies and programs. Its purpose is to forward home demonstration work through cooperation and in developing trained leadership to carry on the Extension Program. The group holds an Annual Meeting in July.

State Council

The State Council of Negro Home Demonstration Clubs is composed of 93 Negro Home Demonstration Clubs with a membership of 21,708 rural women in 52 organized counties.

PARLIAMENTARY LAW

Parliamentary Law refers to those rules established by long usage for the conduct of meetings. Therefore, every officer, as well as the members of a club should study and practice parliamentary procedure so that all meetings may be conducted in an impartial and dignified manner.

Suggestions for Conducting a Meeting

President: (Standing) "The meeting will please come to order. We will stand and sing and remain standing while we pray together the Club Collect."

President: "The Secretary will read the minutes of the last meeting."

Secretary: (Standing) "Madam President: The regular meeting of the Club was called to order (time and date) at (place) by the president. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The roll call showed (number of members) present. The treasurer reported balance on hand at last meeting Total receipts; Total disbursements; present balance. Mrs., chairman of the committee gave a report. Mrs. reported as chairman of the committee and moved the adoption of the recommendations in the report. The motion was seconded, and after some discussion, carried. There being no further business, the president turned the meeting over to the project leader, Mrs. for a demonstration in"

President: "You have heard the report of the secretary. Are there any corrections? (pause) There being none the minutes stand approved as read."

President: "Will the secretary please call the roll."

Secretary: (Seated) calls roll.

President: "Will the treasurer please make her report?"

Treasurer: "Madam President: Balance from last report receipts; (itemized); Total Signed, Treasurer."

President: "You have heard the report of the treasurer. Are there any questions? (pause) There being none, the report is accepted."

Announcements should be made at this time.

President: "The report from the committee will now be given." Reports of meetings and work done require no action. When a report carries recommendations or work done and recommendations, the chairman should move the adoption of the report before sitting down. Another member of the committee may second the motion.

President: "It has been moved and seconded. Is there any discussion? (pause) The question then is (state motion). All in favor say 'Aye' (pause) opposed, 'No' (pause) The Ayes have it and the motion is adopted," or "The Noes have it and the motion is lost."

"Under new business there is a communication from the State President which the secretary will read." As secretary finishes, a club member stands and addresses the chair:

"Madam President." ("Mrs." if she is not known by president.)

President: "Mrs."

Club Member: "I move that the club " (Person seconding the motion need not rise and is not recognized.) Discussion follows. The president should be sure to ask for any discussion and for both ayes and noes, and then announce the result. (Avoid taking negative votes on questions of condolence, sympathy, or courtesy.) At the close of the business, the meeting is turned over to the program chairman or project leader, at the close of which the meeting is returned to the president who may declare the meeting adjourned.

Election of Officers

A Nominating Committee saves time and should insure careful selection. The committee should be elected or appointed one month in advance of the election of officers. Persons whose names are presented should have been interviewed and have given their consent to be considered as candidates. The committee reports as follows: "Madam President, the Nominating Committee wishes to submit the following report: For President,, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer Respectfully submitted, Nominating Committee."

President: "Are there any further nominations?" (pause) If other nominations are made, names are voted on separately. If no other nominations are made and the constitution provides no definite method, the president may say: "There being no other nominations, the Chair declares the persons recommended by the Nominating Committee as your officers for the coming year," (reads names).

The president calls for the officers-elect to come forward and presents each one in a few well chosen words.

CLUB ETHICS

The president prepares the order of business with the secretary.

The president stands when opening and closing meetings and when stating questions.

The president speaks distinctly and loud enough to be heard, and maintains order.

The president does not take any lengthy part in discussions or show prejudice on questions.

The president avoids taking negative votes on questions of condolence sympathy or courtesy.

When introducing a speaker, the president should endeavor to give correctly the name, title, and institution he represents, and to make the introduction one that will tend to establish cordial relationships between the speaker and the audience.

The president makes use of her secretary in every possible way to insure a well conducted meeting, i.e., to read communications, in questions of procedure, etc.

The secretary is seated by the president and is ready to assist the president at all times. All motions are written down as stated; in case of disagreement the secretary's notes are final authority.

The minutes of the meeting do not constitute a report; they should be the authentic proceedings of the meeting and in no way biased.

In presenting matters, members always stand, address the chair and wait for recognition.

Any discussion by members among themselves when not recognized by the chair is out of order and discourteous.

Members should consider the assembly as a whole and speak loud enough to be heard by all.

PROGRAM OF WORK IN RELATION TO EXTENSION OBJECTIVES

The ultimate objective towards which Extension work is directed is more fruitful lives and better living for all people.

The county program should be planned in line with the Challenge and Rural Progress program. It is based on problems presented by representative people, the solutions of which are understood by them and can be measured in terms of their objective. In planning a county program of work, club members are given an opportunity to think through their own farm and home situations, analyze their own problems and make suggestions for a solution of family and community problems. From these suggestions and those of the Extension Specialists and the home demonstration agent, the county program is made.

On meeting county goals and carrying the program to farm families, the local club leaders work with the home demonstration agent and the State Extension Staff who have the cooperation of the North Carolina State College and the Experiment Station, as well as the full resources of the United States Department of Agriculture.

To help guide you in program planning the objectives are given for the projects primarily included in the home economics program of work.

The Home Demonstration State Council did not undertake a civic project as such for 1960. Instead each county Council was requested to give our 4-H camp four (4) plastic pillow covers or $2 each to purchase the same. At our Annual State Council Meeting in March, 1960, a total of 176 covers from 43 counties had been purchased with money sent in by these county groups.

DRINK TO ME ONLY WITH THINE EYES

Drink to me only with thine eyes, And I will pledge with mine;
Or leave a kiss within the cup, And I'll not ask for wine;
The thirst that from the soul doth rise, Doth ask a drink divine;
But might I of Jove's nectar sip, I would not change for thine.

I sent thee late a rosy wreath, Not so much hon'ring thee
As giving it a hope that there It could not withered be;
But thou there on didst only breathe, And sent'st it back to me,
Since when it grows and smells, I swear, Not of itself but thee.

IT'S A GOOD TIME TO GET TOGETHER

It's a good time to get together
It's a good time to know
Who is standing there beside you,
And to smile and say hello.
Goodbye lonesome feeling;
Farewell glassy stare,
When we all join hands and pull together,
We're sure to get there.

HARK! THE HERALD ANGELS SING

Hark! the herald angels sing, Glory to the new-born King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled.
Joyful, all ye nations, rise, Join the triumph of the skies;
With the angelic host proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem"
Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King!"

Christ, by highest heav'n adored; Christ the everlasting Lord;
Late in time behold Him come, Off-spring of the favored one.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see; Hail the incarnate Diety
Pleased as man with men to dwell, Jesus, our Immanuel!
Hark the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King!"

Hail! the heav'n-born Prince of Peace! Hail! the Son of righteousness

Light and life to all He brings, Ris'n with healing in His wings.
Mild He lays His glory by, Born that man no more may die:
Born to raise the sons of earth, Born to give them second birth.
Hark! the herald angels sing, "Glory to the new-born King!"

A SMILE

A smile is quite a funny thing
It wrinkles up your face.
And when it's gone you'll never find
Its secret hiding place.
But far more wonderful it is
To see what smiles can do
You smile at one, he smiles at you
And so one smile makes two.

He smiles at someone, since you smiled
And then that one smiles back
And that one smiles until in truth
You fail in keeping track.
And since a smile can do great good
By cheering hearts of care
Let's smile and smile and not forget
That smiles go everywhere.

FAITH OF OUR FATHERS

Faith of our fathers! living still
In spite of dungeon, fire, and sword:
O how our hearts beat high with joy,
Whene'er we hear that glorious word:

(Refrain)

Faith of our fathers, holy faith,
We will be true to thee till death.

Our fathers, chained in prisons dark,
Were still in heart and conscience free:
And truly blest would be our fate,
If we, like them, should die for thee.

Faith of our fathers! faith and prayer
Shall win all nations unto thee;
And through the truth that comes from God,
Mankind shall then indeed be free.

BEAUTIFUL DREAMER

Beautiful dreamer, wake unto me,
Starlight and dewdrops are waiting for thee;
Beautiful dreamer, queen of my song,
List while I woo thee with soft melody;
Gone are the cares of life's busy throng,
Beautiful dreamer, awake unto me!
Beautiful dreamer, awake unto me.
Sounds of the rude world heard in the day,
Lull'd by the moonlight have all passed away.

COME THOU ALMIGHTY KING

Come, Thou Al-mighty King, Help us Thy name to Sing,
Help us to praise! Father all glorious, O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us Ancient of days!

Come, Thou Incarnate word, Gird on Thy mighty sword.
Our pray'r attend; Come and Thy people bless, And give Thy word success, Spirit of holiness, On us descend!

Come, Holy Comforter, Thy sacred witness bear, In this glad hour; Thou who almighty art, Now rule in every heart, And ne'er from us depart Spirit of power!

To the great One in Three, Eternal praises be, Hence, evermore: His sov'reign majesty May we in glory see,
And to eternity Love and adore.

BRIGHTEN THE CORNER WHERE YOU ARE

I

Do not wait until some deed of greatness you may do,
Do not wait to shed your light afar.
To the many duties-ever near you now be true,
Brighten the corner where you are.

(Refrain)

Brighten the corner where you are!
Brighten the corner where you are!
Some one far from harbor you may guide across the bar,
Brighten the corner where you are.

II

Just above are clouded skies that you may help to clear,
Let not narrow self your way debar,
Tho, into one heart alone may fall your song of cheer,
Brighten the corner where you are.

IF YOU'RE HAPPY

If you're happy and you know it, say amen (Amen)
If you're happy and you know it, say amen (Amen)
If you're happy and you know it,
Then your life will surely show it;
If you're happy and you know it, say amen (Amen)

(2) Clap your hands

(3) Stamp your feet

FOLLOW THE GLEAM

To the Knights in the days of old,
Keeping watch on the mountain height,
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice thro' the waiting night
Follow, follow, follow the gleam,
Banners unfurled o'er all the world,
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the Chalice that is the Grail.

And we who would serve the King
And loyally Him obey,
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds to-day
Follow, follow, follow the gleam
Of the light that shall bring the dawn.

BLESS THIS HOUSE

Bless this house oh Lord we Pray,
Make it safe by night and day,
Bless these walls so firm and stout,
Keeping want and trouble out,
Bless the roof and Chimney tall,
Let thy peace lie over all,
Bless this door that it may prove
Ever open to joy and love.
Bless these windows shining bright

Letting in Gods' heavenly light,
Bless the hearth a-blazing there
With smoke ascending like a prayer,
Bless the folk who dwell within,
Keep them pure and free from sin,
Bless us all that we may be,
Fit oh Lord to dwell with thee,
Bless us all that one day we,
May dwell oh Lord with Thee.

I WOULD BE TRUE

I would be true, for there are those who trust me;
I would be pure, for there are those who care;
I would be strong, for there is much to suffer;
I would be brave, for there is much to dare,
I would be brave, for there is much to dare.

I would be friend of all, the foe, the friendless;
I would be giving, and forget the gift;
I would be humble for I know my weakness;
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift.
I would look up, and laugh, and love, and lift,

O MASTER, LET ME WALK

O Master, let me walk with Thee
In lowly paths of service free;
Tell me Thy secret, help me bear
The strain of toil, the fret of care.

Teach me Thy patience; still with Thee,
In closer, dearer company,
In work that keeps faith sweet and strong,
In trust that triumphs over wrong.

In hope that sends a shining ray
Far down the future's broadening way;
In peace that only Thou canst give,
With Thee, O Master, let me live!

A SONG OF PEACE

(Tune: "Finlandia")

This is my song, O God of all nations,
A song of peace for lands afar and mine;
This is my home, the country where my heart is,
Here are my hopes, my dreams, my holy shrine;
But other hearts in other lands are beating
With hopes and dreams as true and high as mine.

My country's skies are bluer than the ocean
And sunlight beams on cloverleaf and pine,
But other lands have sunlight, too, and clover,
And skies are everywhere as blue as mine.
Oh, hear my song, Thou God of all nations,
A song of peace for their land and for mine.

VIVE L'AMOUR

Let every good fellow now join in a song,
Vive la campagne!

Success to each other and pass it along,
Vive la campagne!

Vive la, vive la, vive l'amour,
Vive la, vive la, vive l'amour,
Vive l'amour, vive l'amour; Vive la compagnie.

A friend on your left and a friend on your right,
Vive la Compagnie!

In love and good fellowship let us unite,
Vive la Compagnie!

THANKSGIVING HYMN

We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing;
He chastens and hastens His will to make known;
The wicked oppressing cease them from distressing.
Sing praises to His name, He forgets not His own.

Beside us to guide us, our God with us joining,
Ordaining, maintaining His kingdom divine;
So far the beginning the fight we are winning,
Thou Lord, wast at our side, let the glory be Thine.

COME TO THE FAIR

The sun is ashining to welcome the day,
Heigh-ho! Come to the fair!
The folk are all singing so merry and gay,
Heigh-ho! Come to the fair!
All the stalls on the green are as fine as can be,
With trinkets and tokens so pretty to see,
So it's come, then, maidens and men,
To the fair in the pride of the morning,
So deck yourselves out in your finest array,
With a Heigh-ho! Come to the fair!

The fiddlers are playing the tune that you know,
Heigh-ho! Come to the fair!
The drums are all beating, away let us go,
Heigh-ho! Come to the fair!
There'll be racing and chasing from morning till night,
And roundabouts turning to left and to right;
So it's come, then, maidens and men,
To the fair in the pride of the morning.
So lock up your house, there'll be plenty of fun,
And Heigh-ho! Come to the fair!

GOD BLESS AMERICA

While the storm clouds gather
Far across the sea,
Let us swear allegiance
To a land that's free,
Let us all be grateful for a land so fair,
As we raise our voices
In a solemn prayer.

God bless America
Land that I love,
Stand beside her, and guide her
Thru the night with a light from above.
From the mountains, to the prairies.
To the oceans white with foam
God bless America
My home, sweet home.

CHRIST, THE LORD, IS RISEN TODAY

Christ, the Lord is ris'n today, Alleluia!
Sons of men and angels say: Alleluia!
Raise your joys and triumphs high; Alleluia!
Sing, ye heav'ns, and earth reply. Alleluia!

Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
Following our exalted Head: Alleluia!
Made like Him, like Him we rise, Alleluia!
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies. Alleluia!

ALL THROUGH THE NIGHT

Sleep, my love, and peace attend thee All thro' the night;
Guardian angels God will lend thee All thro' the night.
Soft the drowsy hours are creeping, Hill and vale in slumber
steeping
Love alone his watch is keeping All thro' the night.

Though I roam a minstrel lonely, All thro' the night;
My true harp shall praise thee only, All thro' the night.
Love's young dream alas! is over, Yet my strains of love shall hover
Near the presence of my lover All thro' the night.

LOVE'S OLD SWEET SONG

Once in the dear dead days beyond recall,
When on the world the mists began to fall,
Out of the dreams that rose in happy throng,
Low to our hearts love sang an old sweet song,
And in the dusk, where fell the firelight's gleam,
Softly it wove itself into our dreams.

Just a song at twilight, when the lights are low,
And the flickering shadows softly come and go,
Tho' the heart be weary, sad the days and long,
Still to us at twilight comes love's old song,
Comes love's old sweet song.

STANDING IN THE NEED OF PRAYER

Not my brother, not my sister, but a me, O Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer,
Not my brother, not my sister, but a me, O Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer.

Chorus:

It's a me, it's a me, O Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer,
It's a me, it's a me, O Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer.

Not my father, not my mother, but a me, O Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer,
Not my father, not my mother, but a me, O Lord,
Standing in the need of prayer.

LULLABY

Lullaby and goodnight!
With roses bedight,
With lilies o'er spread
Is baby's wee bed.
Lay thee down now and rest,
May thy slumbers be blest,
Lay thee down now and rest,
May thy slumber be blest.

Lullaby and goodnight!
Thy mother's delight,
Bright angels beside
My darling abide.
They will guard thee at rest,
Thow shalt wake on my breast,
They will guard thee at rest,
Thou shalt wake on my breast.
